

New Family Questionnaire

It is important to us that your child have the most successful experience possible at our school. Therefore, your child's readiness for preschool, needs or habits, and personal interests are extremely helpful in making your little one's time with us the best it can be. We highly encourage you to bring your child for a visit prior to enrollment, research information on Montessori philosophy and curriculum, and ask any questions you may have about our program before their first day. Thank you for your responses to the following questions and welcome to Sunrise!
